

North Central Florida Association for the Education of Young Children

Presents:

26th Annual Excellence in Early Childhood Education Conference

Saturday, March 13, 2010

at the Reitz Student Union on campus of University of Florida in Gainesville

Registration fee includes lunch.
CEU's are available for an additional $17.00

The Keynote speaker:

Bradley Smith

Bradley Smith has been an adult educator and motivational speaker for over 20 years. He currently serves as the Executive Director of the National Institute of Child Care Management. In 1998 he founded HandPrint Productions, a training and consulting firm specializing in small business, early childhood issues, human resource and leadership. As a nationally known speaker, and published author his quick wit and light hearted approach make him easy to listen to as he takes complicated issues and makes them seem simple.

There will be numerous learning opportunities for Teachers,
Family Child Care Home Providers, Directors and Owners.

Topics may include: Developmentally Appropriate Lessons, Learning Environments, Infant and Toddler Care, Language and Literacy, VPK, Children with Special Needs, Budget and Finances, Record-keeping, Fund-raising. Leadership, Quality Staff and more.